

ART 7.6.2 Conduct Limited Interventions

Limited interventions are executed to achieve a clearly defined end state, limited in scope. Corresponding limitations are imposed on the supporting operations and size of the forces involved. These operations may be phased but are not intended to become campaigns. Although limited interventions are confined in terms of end state and forces, their execution may be lengthy. Joint task forces usually conduct these limited interventions. (FM 3-0) (USACAC)

NO.	Scale	Measure
-----	-------	---------

Supporting Collective Tasks:

Task No.	Title	Proponent	Echelon
----------	-------	-----------	---------