

ART 4.1.3.13 Perform Forward Arming and Refueling Point Activities

Establish a temporary facility organized, equipped, and deployed to provide fuel and ammunition to employ helicopter units. A forward arming and refueling point (FARP) is located closer to the area of operations than the aviation unit's sustainment area. Implementing a forward arming and refueling point includes environmental considerations. (FM 3-04.104) (USAAWC)

| NO. | Scale | Measure |
|------------|--------------|--|
| 01 | Yes/No | FARP site contained supplies to allow the aviation element to continue its mission. |
| 02 | Yes/No | FARP site was operational when and where necessary to support the aviation element and had applied environmental considerations. |
| 03 | Time | To provide forward aerial fuel and ammunition concept of support after receipt of warning order. |
| 04 | Time | To complete bulk refuel and rearm operations at the forward arming and refueling point, once aircraft arrive. |
| 05 | Percent | Of bulk fuel and ammunition distribution capacity available. |
| 06 | Percent | Of supplies destroyed by enemy action. |
| 07 | Percent | Of communication resources and support personnel available to support mission. |
| 08 | Percent | Of materials handling equipment available to support each mission and site. |
| 09 | Number | And types of aviation platforms requiring resupply. |
| 10 | Number | And types of supplies to support operation. |
| 11 | Number | Of gallons of bulk fuel delivered to forward arming and refueling point. |
| 12 | Number | And types of ordnance delivered to forward arming and refueling point. |
| 13 | Number | Of gallons or pounds of bulk fuel provided by organic assets. |
| 14 | Number | And types of ordnance provided by organic assets. |
| 15 | Number | Of total flying hours for each aircraft and number of miles between support location. |
| 16 | Number | Of kilometers between support location. |

| | | |
|----|--------|--|
| 17 | Number | And types of platforms providing security. |
| 18 | Number | Of kilometers that the location of supported forces is offset from the location of supporting forces. |
| 19 | Number | And types of supplies destroyed by enemy action. |
| 20 | Number | Of casualties occurring during the conduct of the forward arming and refueling point operations resulting from enemy action and accidents. |
