

ART 7.6.4.2 Provide Support to Insurgencies

Insurgencies are movements organized to overthrow a constituted government through subversion and armed conflict. By order of the President, Army forces support insurgencies that oppose regimes that threaten U.S. interests or regional stability. While any Army force can be tasked to support an insurgency, Army special operations forces usually receive these missions. The training, organization, and regional focus of Army special operations forces make them well suited for these operations. Army forces supporting insurgencies may provide logistic and training support. They can, but normally do not, conduct combat operations. (FM 3-07) (USACAC)
