	UTM 2013	The Leader's Guide to Unit Training Management (UTM) https://atn.army.mil/media/docs/LG_to_UTM_FIN_AL.pdf	No	No

Conditions: The unit is required to assess training in order to determine unit training proficiency and adjust future training plans. Given the unit's mission with commander's intent, commander's training guidance, training objectives, the training assessment plan, the operational environment (OE); access to the Army Training Network (ATN) or Digital Training Management System (DTMS) for individual and collective task and drill Training & Evaluation Outlines (T&EOs); access to DTMS for training event AAR notes and task/drill assessments; in garrison or when deployed. Standard MOPP 4 conditions do not exist for this task. See the MOPP 4 statement for specific conditions.

Standards: The unit uses previously recorded evaluation and assessment data, bottom-up feedback, and AAR notes to determine training proficiency and the units ability to execute a task or drill to standard. The unit leadership determines whether the commander's intent was achieved and decides on the assessed training level (T, P, or U) for all supporting tasks and drills; Unit leaders report the latest assessment(s) to the commander with recommendations for future training.

Live Fire Required: No

Environment: Environmental protection is not just the law but the right thing to do. It is a continual process and starts with deliberate planning. Always be alert to ways to protect our environment during training and missions. In doing so, you will contribute to the sustainment of our training resources while protecting people and the environment from harmful effects. Refer to the current Environmental Considerations manual and the current GTA Environmental-related Risk Assessment card. None

Safety: In a training environment, leaders must perform a risk assessment in accordance with ATP 5-19, Risk Management. Leaders will complete the current Deliberate Risk Assessment Worksheet in accordance with the TRADOC Safety Officer during the planning and completion of each task and sub-task by assessing mission, enemy, terrain and weather, troops and support available-time available and civil considerations, (METT-TC). Note: During MOPP training, leaders must ensure personnel are monitored for potential heat injury. Local policies and procedures must be followed during times of increased heat category in order to avoid heat related injury. Consider the MOPP work/rest cycles and water replacement guidelines IAW FM 3-11.4, Multiservice Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures for Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical (NBC) Protection, FM 3-11.5, Multiservice Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures for Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear Decontamination.
