

ART 7.3 Conduct Stability Operations

Stability operations encompass various military missions, tasks, and activities conducted outside the United States in coordination with elements of combat to maintain or reestablish a safe and secure environment, provide essential government services, emergency infrastructure reconstruction, and humanitarian relief. Stability operations can be conducted in support of a host-nation or interim government or as part of an occupation when no government exists. Stability operations involve both coercive and constructive actions by the military force. They are designed to establish a safe and secure environment; facilitate reconciliation among local or regional adversaries; establish political, legal, social, and economic institutions; and facilitate the transition to legitimate local governance. Army forces conduct five stability tasks: civil security, civil control, restore essential services, support to governance, and support to economic and infrastructure development. (FM 3-0) (USACAC).

Note: This task branch only addresses those tasks that support the conduct of Army stability operations. Other tasks that support stability operations are addressed elsewhere in the AUTL: ART 6.5.4 (Provide Protective Services for Selected Individuals) addresses the protection of personnel. ART 6.5.2 (Conduct Critical Installations and Facilities Security) addresses the protection of facilities. ART 6.12 (Provide Explosive Ordnance Disposal Protection Support) addresses the conduct of unexploded ordnance disposal.
