

ART 7.6.1 Conduct Military Engagements

Peacetime military engagement comprises all military activities that involve other nations and are intended to shape the security environment in peacetime. It includes programs and exercises that the U.S. military conducts with other nations to shape the international environment, improve mutual understanding, and improve interoperability with treaty partners or potential coalition partners. Peacetime military engagement activities are designed to support a combatant commander's objectives within the theater security cooperation plan. (FM 3-0) (USACAC)
