

ART 5.1.1.7 PROVIDE DEFENSE SUPPORT TO PUBLIC DIPLOMACY

Defense support to public diplomacy is those activities and measures taken by the Department of Defense components to support and facilitate public diplomacy efforts of the U.S. Government. Defense support to public diplomacy is the military's role in supporting the U.S. Government's strategic communication program. It includes peacetime military engagement activities conducted as part of combatant commanders' theater security cooperation plans. (USACAC)
