

ART 6.5.6 Secure Supply Routes and Convoys

Security and protection of supply routes and convoys in the area of operations is critical to military operations since most traffic supporting military operations moves along these routes. Plans to provide main supply route security may include designating units for convoy security, providing guidance for units to provide their own security during convoys, or establishing protection and security requirements for convoys carrying critical assets.(FM 4-01.45) (CASCOM)
