

ART 5.1.3.6.1 Reorganize Units as Part of a Reconstitution Effort

Reorganization is action to shift resources within a degraded unit to increase its combat effectiveness. Commanders of all types of units at each echelon conduct reorganization. They reorganize before considering regeneration. Reorganization may be immediate or deliberate. (FM 100-9) (CASCOM)

NO.	Scale	Measure
01	Yes/No	Unit reorganized and maintained seamless continuity of operations.
02	Yes/No	Commander provided new graphic control measures.
03	Yes/No	Commander adopted new task organization, if required.

Supporting Collective Tasks:

Task No.	Title	Proponent	Echelon
07-6-5082	Conduct Reorganization (Battalion - Brigade)	07 - Infantry (Collective)	Brigade
63-6-2454	Coordinate Regeneration Support	63 - Multifunctional Logistics (Collective)	Brigade
63-7-2311	Manage Regeneration Support	63 - Multifunctional Logistics (Collective)	Division (TOE)